Upcoming COVID-19 Vaccination Clinics:

The Library's COVID-19 vaccine clinics continue at various locations through January 18. Visit pgcmls.info/coronavirus for the latest information. The participating branches are: Beltsville, Greenbelt, Fairmount Heights, Glenarden, Greenbelt, Hillcrest Heights, New Carrollton, Oxon Hill, South Bowie, and Spauldings. Clinics through January 10 are supported by the Prince George’s County Health Department, Maryland Department of Health, and Maryland Vaccine Equity Task Force. Luminis Health will host an additional COVID-19 and flu vaccine clinic at the New Carrollton Branch Library on Tuesday, January 18 from 5-7 pm.

The clinics will offer Pfizer vaccines for residents ages 5 and up, including booster doses for eligible adults. Each participating branch will host a single first dose clinic and a single second dose clinic. Vaccinations will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis and no appointments are required. Visit pgcmls.info for a map of branches and addresses. Customers may contact (240) 455-5451 or askalibrarian@pgcmls.info with questions.

COVID-19 Rapid Antigen Self-Test Kits

The Library's supply of COVID-19 rapid antigen self-test kits is expected to be completely exhausted by the end of the day on Monday, December 20. The next resupply from the Maryland Department of Health will be no sooner than the week after Christmas. Please follow the Library's social media (@PGCMLS) on all platforms for updates and call (240) 455-5451 during library hours to verify availability prior to traveling to a branch. Tests should not be conducted at the Library and individuals who have COVID-19 symptoms should send someone to pick up tests on their behalf to minimize risk for library customers and staff.
